We run Ottawa's go-to website for all things volunteering and offer dozens of workshops, training sessions, inclusive programs, and networking opportunities to ensure that individuals and non-profit organizations have the skills, knowledge, and resources they need to make an impact.

We support hundreds of local non-profit organizations and thousands of volunteers looking for their next opportunity.

Announcing the 2024
Lifetime Achievement
Award recipient:

Bharat Rudra

Bharat Rudra is the 2024 recipient of Volunteer Ottawa's Lifetime Achievement Award, a prestigious honour recognizing his over 35 years of impactful and wide-ranging community service.

As the co-founder and volunteer President of TiE Ottawa for 23 years, Bharat has played a pivotal role in empowering countless local entrepreneurs and shaping the entrepreneurial ecosystem. He has also served as an advisor to the City of Ottawa Immigrant Entrepreneur Awards for the past decade. Bharat co-founded Dhadkan, a nonprofit that has significantly supported the Ottawa Heart Institute by raising over $10 million for heart disease research over ten years. Bharat also served as Vice President of the Indo-Canadian Community Center and currently volunteers as a member of Algonquin College's Board of Governors. Additionally, he has organized and supported several dozen charity events, including the notable 'India Day' with the Ottawa Senators, to integrate and celebrate Indo-Canadian culture within the broader community.

Bharat's community service has been previously recognized with several awards, including the Order of Ottawa in 2020. A graduate of the University of Ottawa computer engineering program, Bharat is Vice-President of 123worx, an Ottawa-based software company.
